

Gary Winnick is a crook and a sheister who has profitted greatly from short selling the stock in this company based on insider information and now will rip off the shareholder again by selling to these foreign companies while he benefits again with a back room deal to retain power and ownership. Don't let this important asset fall into the hands of a foreing company and back into his control.